New Bell Parking Update

I spoke to Nicky, the manager at the New Bell, with reference to the parking fines which some parents have received. She has said that if parents have had a fine for parking in the morning, they need to go and see her and she will try to resolve it. Moving forward, she is happy for parents to continue to use the car park in the morning, but the car park will need to be vacated by 9:30am (parents will be fined after this time).

Visitor's Code of Conduct

The Governing Body have put together a (draft) Visitor's Code of Conduct, which is attached to this newsletter. They are seeking your views on the 'Code of Conduct' and you will notice a 'box' for your comments. Please send any comments into school by Monday 22nd January at the latest. Many thanks for your support.
